

Chapada dos Veadeiros is on the largest plateau in central Brazil, a rock formation among the oldest surfaces on the planet, around 1.8 billion years old

This rock formation gave rise to deep canyons, colored water springs, gigantic crystal plates, hills and valleys that, together with strategic geographic coordinates, make Chapada dos Veadeiros a naturally extraordinary amusement park. Holistic Destiny

Holistic tourism also attracts thousands of visitors. A mystical aura surrounds the Chapada dos Veadeiros region. A perfect setting for experiences that encompass all fields of our being.

Located over the largest concentration of rose quartz on the planet, it is considered the Earth's "heart chakra". The energy of the crystals, the crystal clear waters and the exuberance of the cerrado provide comprehensive experiences for visitors.

How to get

Chapada dos Veadeiros is located in the Center-West region, in the northeast of the State of Goiás, 230 km from Brasília (DF) and 430 km from Goiânia (GO).

The place has more than 2 thousand waterfall options, which can reach more than 180m of waterfall, natural pools and thermal waters. The region is located in the Cerrado biome, whose biodiversity, beautiful landscapes, abundant waters and traditional communities attract those seeking health and well-being.

What to do

Whether you are an adventurer or someone looking to rest, whether you are traveling with friends or family, you have chosen the right place.

Live different experiences in the various seasons of the year. During the "Water Season" (October to May), enjoy abundant waterfalls, natural pools, enchanting sunsets and local cuisine. In the "Dry Season" (June to September), the cerrado transforms, displaying crystal clear waters and a paradise of colors. For interesting and safe tourism, always hire a local guide.
